

Robert Van Arlen

THE MOST ENGAGING SPEAKER ON THE PLANET!

His speeches and training programs are designed to motivate individuals to think about their contributions to the vision, the team and to the organization. His process answers the question, "Are we truly in alignment?"

Robert's distinction is his ability to use the power of music to ignite his audience in an experiential learning environment that becomes a significant element of personal growth.

From billion dollar corporations to youth groups, Robert has helped people in many walks of life make changes to improve their ability to reach their personal, professional and organizational goals.
